Our Vision

We are a Catholic Community who profess, celebrate and witness that Jesus lives, and to whom the Father sends His Spirit. We express that belief by living out and spreading the message of the Gospel.

5th and 6th of May 2018

6th Sunday of Easter - Year B

Gospel

For the past five weeks we, the long baptized and the newly baptized, have been relishing life in the Spirit, though we have yet to read Luke's account of the first outpouring of the spirit. That will come in 2 week's time on Pentecost Sunday. Today we anticipate the story of that original event by hearing of a later Pentecost, but one with a difference. This time the gift of the Spirit is poured out on pagans, and a new era in the mission of the church is launched. All the baptized share this mission, 'In virtue of their baptism all the members of the people of God have become missionary disciples. All the baptized whatever their position in the church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelization. Pope Francis appeal continues to ring in our ears: "let us not allow ourselves to be robbed of missionary enthusiasm."

Introduction to Christian Meditation

Be Still and know that I am God.

Invitation to a six week introduction course

At

St Gregory the Great,

71 Williamson's Road, Doncaster East, VIC 3109

Wednesday Evenings, 7.30 – 8.30pm

18th April to the 30th May

Meditation is an ancient form of prayer. Its aim is to bring the distracted mind to silence and stillness and rest in the presence of God who dwells within our hearts. Even in our modern busy lives this is possible.

We invite you to come along and try this form of prayer which is simple and peaceful and aims to make our awareness of this presence central in our lives.

The introductory course provides an opportunity to experience the practice of meditation in a small group. To learn about its origins and to discover its relevance as a form of prayer for contemporary world.

Top five takeaways from 'Gaudete et Exsultate'

Here is the third of five takeaways from Pope Francis' new and very practical exhortation.

Two tendencies to avoid: Gnosticism and Pelagianism

Pope Francis may send people racing to either dictionaries or their theology textbooks when asks us to avoid two dangers in the spiritual life. The first is Gnosticism. Gnosticism is the old heresy that says that what matters most is what you know. No need to be charitable or do good works. All you need is the correct intellectual approach. Today Gnosticism tempts people to think that they can make the faith 'entirely comprehensible' and leads them to want to force others to adopt their way of thinking. 'When somebody has an answer for every question,' says Francis, 'it's a sign that they are not on the right path.' In other words, being a know-it-all is not going to save you. The second thing to avoid is Pelagianism.

Pelagianism says that we can take care of our salvation through our own efforts. Pelagians trust in their own powers, don't feel like they need God's grace and act superior to others because they observe certain rules. Today's Pelagians often have, the pope says, 'an obsession with the law, an absorption with social and political advantages, punctilious concern for the church's liturgy, doctrine and prestige.' It's a real danger to holiness because it robs us of humility, sets us over others, and leaves little room for grace.
