Ss Peter and Paul's is committed to upholding the safety and dignity of each child and young person, ensuring they are able to grow and develop in a caring and supportive environment within our parish. Visit our parish website or contact our parish office for our child-safe policy."

Acknowledgement to Country

In the spirit of reconciliation, Ss Peter and Paul's parish acknowledges the Wurundjeri people as the traditional custodians of the land we all now share. For thousands of years they raised their families, maintained their culture and sustainably managed this sacred land. We pay our respects to their Elders past, present and emerging.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders Sunday

Every year, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First peoples. This year is particularly important following the COVID19 Pandemic and its impact on the way which we interacted and made contact with one another. This year, NATSICC has decided to adopt the NAIDOC theme for 2021 -Heal Country-. Today our world is in need of healing – environmentally spiritually and socially. We must all come together as a global community to fight the injustices of inequality, racism and environmental damage. We hope that these resources will help your community to begin to heal and in turn aid in the healing of those in most need.

Ss Peter & Paul's One in a Hundred Appeal – Launching for 2021-22

In launching the One in a Hundred Appeal for another year we firstly say thanks very much to the 60 or so parishioner families who generously contributed $10,000 in 2020-21. This was sent to the Notre Dame de Sion Local Children's Education Fund Jerusalem to assist Palestinian families with their children's education, and of immense benefit.

Their circumstances have regrettably worsened through the Pandemic and the recent upheavals in Israel, such that the need for our support is greater than ever – hence the decision to renew the Appeal for the coming year.

While we are fortunate to have the supporting families, who will be contacted directly, the only way to increase our aid package is to recruit more donors, so on Masses next weekend (10th/11th July) we will ask for your help by committing to the Appeal based on a $120 per annum donation paid once, twice or via monthly envelopes. Please join us in this great work of charity – and see the Co-ordinator, Harry Martin, who will speak at the three Masses, to register after Mass.

Church Embracing Aboriginal Catholic Ministry

in 1986 Pope John Paul II addressed Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholics in Alice Springs, in Australia's Northern Territory. He reaffirmed that the Spirit of God had been with our First Nations People for thousands of years and that their culture, which 'shows the lasting genius and dignity of their race', must not be allowed to disappear. 'Your songs, your stories, your paintings, your dances, your languages, must never be lost,' he said. With these words, Aboriginal Catholic Ministry was established in Victoria, and its mission of sharing Indigenous spirituality and educating the broader community about its rich culture, endures today.

Sherry Balcombe, an Olkola/Djabaguy woman originally from Far North Queensland is the Manager of Aboriginal Catholic Ministry Victoria located on Wurundjeri land in Thornbury, in Melbourne's inner north. She remembers that day and those words in 1986 well.

'It was a wonderful speech' and it was 'the pinnacle of the establishment of Aboriginal Catholic Ministry in Victoria', she said. 'Aunty Joyce Smith, a Muthi-Muthi/Wemba Wamba from the Lake Mungo area was at the gathering in Alice Springs. She came back to Melbourne and organised for a submission to be written to the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne calling for the establishment of an Aboriginal Catholic Ministry in Victoria. Previous attempts had failed but this one was accepted right away.'

Sherry said the Pope's words 'provided the mandate' for a ministry within the Catholic Church that incorporated and encouraged the rich and deep spirituality of Australia's First Nations people.

'Pope John Paul spoke about how precious our [Aboriginal] culture is, and how it's very important for us to pass it on,' Sherry said. 'He said that "we're like a tree that's been through a bushfire where the bark is burned and scarred, but inside the sap still flows and the roots underground are still strong".'

'Most importantly, he said, "until Aboriginal people have made their contribution, and until that contribution is joyfully received, the Church in Australia won't be what Jesus wants it to be".'
