Child Safety Policy

Ss Peter and Paul's is committed to upholding the safety and dignity of each child and young person, ensuring they are able to grow and develop in a caring and supportive environment within our parish. Visit our parish website or contact our parish office for our child-safe policy."

Acknowledgement to Country

In the spirit of reconciliation, Ss Peter and Paul's parish acknowledges the Wurundjeri people as the traditional custodians of the land we all now share. For thousands of years they raised their families, maintained their culture and sustainably managed this sacred land. We pay our respects to their Elders past, present and emerging.

Equal Opportunity (Religious Exceptions) Amendment Bill 2021

Archbishop Peter Comensoli has written a letter to the People and Cleary of Melbourne voicing his concern on the bill being tabled in the state government which will impact all faith based organisations in Victoria. The Victorian government is depicting this bill as merely a protection against discrimination in religious settings. Sadly, however this is a seriously far-reaching law that will limit faith-based organisations from managing employment matters according to their faith, conscience and values. The legalisations is a serious overreach of the Government into the rightful freedoms of Victorian faith-based organisation.

The Archbishops full letter is in the foyer for you to take home and read together with advise on how we can have our say. The Bill is being debated in Parliament next week, so we urge parishioners to have their say. Please take of copy of the letter home this weekend.

How to stand up for religious freedom

In light of the Equal Opportunity (Religious Exceptions) Amendment Bill 2021

- 1. Contact your local Members of Parliament in Victoria
Writing to Members of Parliament (MPs) is an effective way to communicate with them about this Bill. A short letter (emailed or mailed) respectfully expressing concerns with the legislation will help them understand what is important to people of faith.
Each Victorian has one MP representing their local district and six MPs who represent their wider region. If you're unsure who to write to, you can find out which district/region you are part of and the contact details of the MPs representing you here: www.parliament.vic.gov.au/about/electorates
- 2. Contact your federal Members of Parliament
Writing to federal Members of Parliament to tell them about what is happening here in Victoria is also vitally important, because religious freedom legislation is potentially being considered on a federal level. You can write to them to share your concern and ask them to act to protect the religious freedom of all Australians.
- 3. Share your concerns with others
You are also encouraged to tell your family, friends and those in your local community about your concerns and ask them to become active too.
- 4. Get active on Social Media
You may also like to share your concerns with your Members of Parliament via their Social Media pages.
- 5. Find out more
Keep up to date about this issue at: www.melbournecatholic.org/religiousfreedom

Each Victorian has one local MP representing their geographic area and twelve Senators who represent their state.
Details of your local federal Member of Parliament can be found here: www.aph.gov.au/Senators_and_Members/Members
Simply scroll down to 'Search Members' and type in your postcode to find your MP.
